Promise Student Support Program

Statement of Purpose

The Learning Center provides a support program for MSU Promise students to ensure success for the Promise participants. The PSSP is designed to provide support, academic and otherwise, aiding the Promise student in transitioning to MSU and successful completion of a baccalaureate degree program. This support includes credit hour classes, academic counseling, and monitoring of student progress. All Promise students who meet MSU Satisfactory Academic Progress will be eligible to receive any supportive services of the PSSP.

Promise students are required to enroll in LSK 1041—College Success I. This one-hour course is designed specifically for Promise students to enhance their college experience and academic success. A major component of the program is individual meetings with the PSSP Coordinator or instructor during the first semester and continued contact in subsequent semesters. An additional course, LSK 1141—College Success II, is available as an option, or a requirement, if MSU GPA falls below 2.50.

Foglesong rolls out Mississippi State 'Promise' awards

Office of Public Affairs

Contact: Maridith Geuder May 11, 2006

STARKVILLE, Miss.--Mississippi State President Robert H. "Doc" Foglesong announced Thursday a new university initiative to provide support for incoming freshmen whose family incomes can't accommodate rising tuition.

Mississippi State Promise Awards are being established by the land-grant institution for students meeting required academic qualifications and whose family incomes fall below $30,000. The program also provides on-campus work opportunities to help offset other non-tuition costs.

"Mississippi State Promise will provide financial awards for those students who can't meet the expense of rising tuition," Foglesong explained. The program will cover the cost of tuition and required fees.

Foglesong, who is nearing his first month as MSU's 18th chief executive, said ensuring access to a Mississippi State education is an important personal goal. "We are trying to provide in a modest way the resources to help young men and women who have been squeezed out by tuition," he added.

Qualifying students must have achieved at least a 3.0 (out of 4.0) grade-point average in high school. They also must maintain at least a 2.5 MSU grade-point average to remain eligible. Full-time students may receive the Promise award for a maximum of five years.

To fund the awards, MSU will draw on institutional grant funding, in conjunction with federal and state grants and private gifts, said Bill Kibler, vice president for student affairs.

"We'll also make use of other institutional scholarships and waivers to ensure that the entire cost of tuition and required fees is covered with student gift aid," he said.

"We're doing this because it's the right thing to do," Foglesong said. "I'm confident we'll be able to take a bite out of the burden on some families."

For more information about the Mississippi State Promise, telephone Kibler at (662) 325-3045.

Conclusion

MISSISSIPPI STATE UNIVERSITY™

THE LEARNING CENTER

The Learning Center is a resource to help Mississippi State University students improve their academic performance. The Learning Center offers services to both graduate and undergraduate students which include university courses, support programs, workshops, seminars, tutoring services, and state of the art technology labs. Open to all students, these services are particularly designed to promote academic enrichment.

More specifically, the faculty and staff of The Learning Center strive to support students in achieving their academic, professional, and personal goals. We appreciate your interest in the Promise Program and for taking the time to review our data. Additionally, we hope you have learned more about the Promise Student Support Program and what a valuable asset we believe it is to our students, the university, and our community.

Again, we are delighted about your interest in this program and we hope to see it continue to “bridge the tuition gap” and to provide academic support for students who have proven themselves academically in high school or at the community college level, who come from low income families, and who are striving to obtain a college degree.
